

Marge Kendrick paintings on display: As many of you know, Tamworth artist Marge Kendrick has moved out of state to live with family. Before she left, she donated a number of paintings to the Cook Memorial Library. These paintings are on display at the library this month. In addition, we invite you to write a note or message to Marge in the book we have here at the library for that purpose. We will send the book to Marge at the end of the month.

Our Annual Holiday Open House is Tues., Dec. 12, beginning at 6:00 pm. Potluck meal (bring something, or just bring yourself), songs by K.A. Brett chorus and Potluck Singers, plus a community recitation of the poem A Visit from St. Nicholas by Clement Moore. Start memorizing now!

Incredible Wearables 4-H Maker Challenge: Monday, Dec. 4, 3:30-5:00 pm. This single session workshop for kids age 9 & up takes place on Monday, Dec. 4th, from 3:30 to 5:00 pm. Call or stop in to sign up, 323-8510. This maker challenge will teach a wide variety of skills related to engineering a wearable device, including building circuits, integrating sensors, designing a viable product and interpreting health data. Led by 4-H/Cooperative Extension's Claes Thelemarck.

Practical Wisdom monthly discussion: Wednesday, Dec. 6, 10:30 am-12:00 noon. Follow up October and November discussions on Talking about Aging, begin a new discussion on Giving.

ACA Navigator: Wednesday, Dec. 13, 1:00-8:00 pm. Beth Dyson from White Mountain Community Health Center will be at the library offering drop-in assistance with Healthcare.gov.

The 3D Printer we share with other libraries (thanks to the NH State Library) will be back here Dec. 18-30. If you have a file you'd like to print, let us know, or just stop in and see the printer in action. Find 3-D designs at thingiverse.com or create your own at tinkercad.com. The maximum size that our printer can print is 10 cubic centimeters, and colors are limited. There is a nominal charge for printing based on weight of the material used.

All Ages Book Discussion with Hot Cocoa: Wed., Dec. 27, 4:00 pm, ages 7-up. Pick up a copy of Twelve Kinds of Ice by Ellen Bryan Obed ahead of time. The story works well for reading aloud, short and sweet.

Nighttime Storytime: Wed., Dec. 27, 6:30 pm, kids ages 6 and younger, wear pajamas, bring a stuffed friend! Amy will read gentle bedtime stories.
