

Season's Greetings from Cook Library

Internet upgrade coming December 3: We will be upgrading the library's internet connection to a higher speed connection December 3. There will be no internet here for part of that day, please plan accordingly. Once installed, we expect a noticeable improvement!

Whimsy, the 3-D Printer we share with other Lakes Region libraries, will be at our library through December 21. Our 4-H Tamworth Makers Club will be designing and printing 3-D projects, and the public is welcome to explore 3-D printing as well. On Wednesday, December 12 at 6:30 p.m., Library Director Mary Cronin will lead a hands-on workshop on using Tinkercad and Thingiverse to create or modify a file to print on the 3-D printer. Sign up ahead of time to reserve a spot; class is limited to 4.

Yoga for Preschoolers, Fridays at 10:30 a.m. December through March, at the Cook Memorial Library in Tamworth. Tara Schroeder of Green Turtle Yoga Studio leads preschoolers along with parents, grandparents, and caregivers in a kid-friendly yoga session. This program will not meet during school vacations and will be cancelled on days local schools are closed for bad weather. Thanks to Friends of CML for funding this program.

Holiday Potluck and Open House, Tuesday, December 11, 6:00-8:00 p.m. at the Cook Memorial Library, Tamworth. Potluck meal followed by music with the K.A. Brett School chorus and the Potluck Singers, plus a performance of a new Tamworth Crankie.

Open Enrollment / Health Insurance Marketplace Assistance, Wednesday, December 12, between 1:00 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. White Mountains Community Health Center's ACA Navigator, Beth Dyson, will provide walk-in assistance with the Health Insurance Marketplace open enrollment. If walk-in-times are not convenient, make an appointment to meet Beth at the White Mountain Community Health Center by calling 447-8900. This assistance is funded by a grant from NH Electric Co-op Foundation.

Russ Staples returns at 1:00 pm on December 19: In 1967, this 22-year-old Peace Corps volunteer – wearing moccasins, corduroys and a borrowed backpack – made his way from south India to Mount Everest. Russ introduces his new book, My Everest Odyssey.

Three Reasons to visit on Wednesday, December 19

- 1:00 Book signing & Q&A with Russ Staples
- 1:30-3:30 Holiday Book Sale in Annex
- 2:00 Brett School Band & Tea (cookies & cocoa)

Nighttime Storytime, Wednesday, December 26, 6:30 p.m. at the Cook Memorial Library, Tamworth. Children's Librarian Amy Carter will read bedtime stories. Wear cozy pajamas, if you like. Call 323-8510 for more information.

Earn a Master of Education (M.Ed.) and put down roots in a NH community! We are helping UNH spread the word: Teacher Residency for Rural Education (TRRE) is a teacher preparation program combining an intensive 15-month UNH graduate M.Ed. degree program with a full-year teacher residency, a community-based internship and new teacher mentor support. Tamworth's K.A. Brett School and other Lakes Region schools will be partners in this program beginning in 2019. Application deadline is January 15, 2019, and program starts in May 2019. For more information: cola.unh.edu/trre

Our morning book group will not meet in December: take time for a breather and some quiet....perhaps reading.
