

The Creative Process: Nurturing the Souls of People and Communities: Three events with artist Hannah Anderson.

• An interactive art show will be on display from Feb. 5-Apr. 2. The mixed media exhibit will include contributions from viewers.

• The Creative Process exhibit kicks off with an evening presentation by artist Anderson on Wed., Feb. 13, at 7:00 p.m.
 • On Feb. 10 from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m., Anderson will offer a Golden Thread Workshop; participants can create their vision boards. All materials will be supplied and no art experience necessary. Fee is $50 and advanced registration is required by contacting the artist at hannahgoldenthreadcoach@gmail.com. Limit of 12.

Mini-Crankies: Experimental Mini-Crankie workshop with Juno Lamb and Jack Mauch from 1:00-4:00 p.m. on Saturday, February 9. All ages welcome; kids 10 and under bring a helpful adult. Materials provided. If you can please bring small boxes – face cream, soap, sardines, phones – and your favorite pens, markers, X-ACTOs, and magazines for collage.

Chess Club continues! Each Tuesday between 6:30 and 8:00 p.m., about a dozen folks show up to play chess. You can come, too! All levels of players are welcome.

Tax Forms will be available at the library soon. You can find forms to download at the IRS website right now at <https://www.irs.gov/forms-instructions>. A good resource for tax questions and finding free tax preparation is NHTaxHelp.org.

Tamworth History Center will host a talk on Chinook Dogs by Bob Cottrell on Tuesday, Feb. 5 at 7:00 p.m. in the library's meeting room.

Ten Years of Climbing and Expeditioning Out of Northern New Hampshire, a slideshow talk by writer and climbing guide Michael Wejchert on Wednesday, February 6 at 7:00 p.m. Wejchert guides for Cathedral Mountain Guides LLC, in between writing and trips to Newfoundland, Alaska, Patagonia, Peru, and the Canadian Rockies.

Hiking Historical New Hampshire: On Wednesday, Feb. 20 at 7:00 p.m., Gordon DuBois, local hiker and journalist for the Laconia Daily Sun, will take you on five virtual hikes to places that played a predominant part in the history of NH.

DocuTalk on Wed., Feb. 20 at 10:30 a.m. Laura Hodgman will show Well-Founded Fear by Shari Robertson and Michael Camerini. Political asylum: who deserves it? Who gets it? In the INS, filmmakers find drama when human rights and American ideals collide with the hard task of trying to know the truth. Shown in collaboration with POV, PBS.

Cookbook Book Club: We're trying recipes from old and new Tamworth community organization cookbooks. Come browse the cookbooks in our Tamworth collection, make a copy of a recipe or two to try at home. On Friday, February 22 at 12:30 p.m., bring what you've made to a potluck lunch.

Seed Saving and Sharing: On Friday, Feb. 22, 2:00 to 3:00 p.m., Hope Requardt and other seed-saving farmer/gardeners will talk about saving seeds and what seeds they're trying out this year. Bring seeds to swap and to restock our Seed Share.

Book Group meets on Wednesday, February 27 at 10:30 a.m. to discuss Esi Edugyan's Washington Black. Borrow a book to read ahead of time, and join us!

Game Night! Come to the library ready to play! We'll have a variety of board games set up throughout the library for you to play with friends and neighbors. Wed. Feb. 27 at 6:30 p.m.
