

April is National Poetry Month: We kick it off Tuesday, April 4 at 6:30 pm with a Poetry Reading featuring local poets. Open mic for all interested.

Art: American Science Fiction through the eyes of Ukrainian Children, from school #135 Lyceum of Arts in Ukraine AND from Bill Cochran's collection of Polish workers' calendars.

Sit for Peace: A monthly meeting for those seeking peace and respite, not debate, begins first Wednesday, April 5 from 11 am-12 noon. Sit by our picture window overlooking the river, share readings, poems, quiet time and wishes for a peaceful world. All welcome.

John Muir Trail: Wed. April 5, 7 pm, Gordon DuBois will give an illustrated talk about his 3-week journey along the John Muir Trail from Yosemite National Park to Mt Whitney.

Solar Viewing: Tues. April 18, 11 am, resident astronomer Marc Stowbridge brings special telescopes and other equipment for observing the sun. Cloud date is April 19.

3-D Printer: Wed. April 19, 10:30 am, Conway Public Library Director David Smolen will bring their 3-D printer and show how it works. Find out ways to create the files that can be printed on the printer.

Seed Saving revisited: Wed. April 19 at 7 pm, come talk about seed saving and share seeds, seed catalogues and favorite seed varieties. Hope Requardt and Paul King will share their knowledge and we hope you will too!

Sense of Place: Sun. April 23, 1-3 pm. Personal map-making workshop, Molly Brown shows how to make hand-painted maps of a place special to you. For adults, all levels of ability, limited to 20. With Green Mtn. Conservation Group.

Honey Bee Democracy Wed. April 26, 7 pm. NE biologist Tom Seeley's journey to discover the secrets of the swarm. Despite perils facing the American Honey Bee's survival, its own decision-making techniques to move forward continue to astonish and challenge apiarist and scientist alike. Presented by Wonalancet beekeeper, Athena Contus.

Shetland Tea: April 29, 3 pm. Ann Cleeves, author of the Shetland mysteries, also wrote a mystery game based around the traditional Shetland tea. Come hear testimony of four witnesses and become detectives. Tea, scones, and prizes.

Gardeners: When you get into your garden, if dividing perennials, please pot some up to donate to the Friends/Altrusa plant sale, which will be held on June 3 this year.

Save the date: Wednesday, May 3 at 7 pm
