

COOK MEMORIAL LIBRARY

May 2017

Maypole: our annual welcome to spring Tuesday, May 2 at 10:30 am. Join Amy and our storytime crowd at Remick Park, and hope for sunny day. Music by Hans Stafford.

Time for Peace: Wednesday, May 3, 11 am to noon. For those seeking peace and respite, not debate. Come sit together and share readings, poems, quiet time and wishes for a more peaceful world. Community gathering, all are welcome.

Peace of Mind: protecting privacy, security & finances, a talk by Deb Golder of Northway Bank on Wednesday, May 3 at 7 pm. Learn about identity theft, common scams, and how to protect yourself. May 1-7 is Choose Privacy Week! Learn more at chooseprivacyweek.org

Friends of CML Book Sale is a monthly good time and great fundraiser for the library. This month, get your summer reading lined up with fabulous fiction markdowns. Did you know our FoCML provides passes for Squam Lakes Natural Science Center and the Remick Country Doctor Museum & Farm, and, new this year, a NH State Parks day pass? We can lend one of each per day. Stop in to reserve a date.

Museum Passes Did you know our Friends of Cook Memorial Library provides passes for Squam Lakes Natural Science Center and the Remick Country Doctor Museum & Farm, and new this year, a NH State Parks day pass? We can lend one of each per day. Stop in to reserve a date.

Nonfiction Book Group Tuesday, May 9 at 6 pm (not 7 pm as previously advertised) to discuss The Tenth Parallel: Dispatches From the Fault Line Between Christianity and Islam by Eliza Griswold. Next month's book is Revenge of Analog: Real Things and Why They Matter by David Sax. Pick up a copy and join us on June 13.

Mothers' Day drop-in craft, Saturday, May 13, 11 am-1 pm. Homemade gifts are the best, stop in and make something special for your favorite mom.

4-H Maker Challenge-Make things that Light up, Buzz and Whirrrr!!!! Kids 9-12 will meet four Tuesdays from 3:45 to 5:00 May 16, 23, 30, June 6. Learn about making circuits with batteries, wires, lights and more, then build some gadgets that light up, spin, and make noise with the flip of a switch. Led by 4-H/Coop Extension's Claes Thelemarck. Limited space, sign up at the library, 323-8510.

Book Launch Mostly My Maine Wednesday, May 17, 7 pm, with Jim Staples, who curated engrossing memoirs by his father and local legend (CCC, Arctic, children, chicken farming, + plenty of blueberries and humor), Walter Staples.

Community Quilt Show from local collections will be on display for May and June. Quilts passed down or made recently, all by talented hands, all with their own stories.

New England Quilts & the Stories They Tell on Wed. May 24 at 7 pm: NH Humanities brings New England Quilt Museum curator Pam Weeks here to weave world, women's, and industrial history with just plain wonderful stories into her presentation about quilts. Cosponsored by CML and Tamworth History Center. You are invited to bring one quilt for ID and/or story sharing.
