

COOK MEMORIAL LIBRARY

93 Main Street, Tamworth, NH 03886

cooklib@tamworthlibrary.org

Vol. XVIII No. VIII August 2021

<https://tamworthlibrary.org>

(603)323-8510

Wondering about changing protocols? Read all about them on our website under "Services."

Art Exhibit continues through August: Kristine Foster-Carbone has lately been involved with faces, cut from the newspaper and incorporated into her work.

Community Art show of FACES! seeking submissions:

We invite people of all ages to share their art: paint, print, collage, photography, poetry, fiber art are all welcome. In fact, any 2-dimensional or small 3-dimensional work (1 cubic foot or smaller) is welcome. It can be art that's newly created or has been around for a while.

Deadlines to pay attention to:

• August 27: Sign up to participate in the show by emailing Lucy at lucy@tamworthlibrary.org.

• September 1, 10:00 AM-8:00 PM: Deliver artwork to the library. This year's community art show and several related activities will take place in September and October.

Tails and Tales 2021 Summer Reading Program is well underway. Lots of young readers have been tracking their progress with stickers and enjoying popsicles when they visit the library, on their way to 50 days of reading this summer.

Storytime for Young Children: Meet outside behind the library on Tuesdays at 10:30 AM for a time for stories, songs, and outdoor play and learning.

Meet Joan and Piki, Tuesday, August 17, 3:30 PM outside behind the library. Author/illustrator Joan Hellquist will read from her book, Piki Goes to College, a fun and tender story of a lovable shelter dog, Piki (rhymes with sneaky), who is on her journey to becoming a Service Dog. Young readers will experience the joy of a dog finding a new life helping others. And along the way she gets herself into a lot of mischief in this delightful and colorfully illustrated tale.

Kids' book club, Wednesday, August 18 at 4:00 PM: Borrow a copy of When Stars Are Scattered by Victoria Jamieson to read ahead of time. Join Amy to talk about it outside behind the library. There will be snacks!

Homeschool Parents Networking and Resource Sharing, Thursday, August 19, 6:30 PM behind the Cook Memorial Library. Cook and Chocorua Libraries are teaming up to host an informal time for homeschool parents to meet each other, learn about local resources, and create/connect to learning programs/pods.

No Two Tails Alike, Saturday, August 21 at 11:00 AM outdoors behind the library. (Rain date is Tuesday, Aug. 24 at 11:00 AM.) Squam Lakes Natural Science Center will bring live animals for a family program to wrap up our "Tails and Tales" Summer Reading Program. Meet live animals as a naturalist from the Science Center tells tales of the tails of some of New Hampshire's native wildlife.

Outdoor Movie Night for all ages, Wednesday, August 25, 7:00 PM behind the Cook Memorial Library. (Rain date is September 1.) Feature film will be Miss Minoes, a charming classic family film that tells the tale of Miss Minoes, a cat who is transformed into a young woman who uses her feline know-how to join forces with a local reporter and foil an evil plan (1 hour 26 minutes). A modern Dutch classic.

Abenaki Tales from the Eastern Woodlands, Wednesday, August 18, 7:00 PM online on Zoom: Cosponsored by Green Mountain Conservation Group, Chocorua Lake Conservancy, and the Cook Memorial Library. Join us to hear Abenaki storyteller, educator and craftsperson Anne Jennison share a few of her favorite traditional Native American stories in an interactive, online performance! The performance will include a traditional Abenaki greeting song, an explanation of Abenaki storytelling traditions, and four Abenaki stories. The evening will conclude with a brief Q & A session. We hope to see you there! Preregister here: <http://www.gmcg.org/abenaki-tales-from-the-northeast-woodlands/>

Summer discussion series: Reading, writing, cooking, eating: A book discussion with a potluck picnic! The final date will be Tuesday, August 24 at 6:00 PM. Pick up a copy of The Language of Baklava by Diana Abu-Jaber to read ahead of time. Bring a dish to share inspired by the book.

Music on the Lawn, Wednesdays at 6:30 PM outside in front of the library. Freewill donations benefit the musicians. Sponsored by The Tamworth Foundation.

August 4 Tucker LeTarte

August 11 Mountain Road

NEW! August 18 - 6 PM Madeline Moneypenny, Mikalah Jenifer, & Michael Barriteau with original & jazz favorites!

Riverside Serenades, Saturdays at 4:00 PM behind the library. Bring a chair or blanket. Freewill donations benefit the musicians. Sponsored by The Tamworth Foundation and organized by Amy Berrier.

August 7 Big House Trio, Amy Berrier, Chris Nourse, & Ellen Schwindt perform music by Beethoven, Strong, Haydn, John Cage, and others.

August 14 Opera On Tap NH, The Diva Show: all-female ensemble singing some of opera's biggest roles, and showcasing what it truly means to be a Diva.

August 21 This Forest is Alive, Composer Ellen Schwindt's new work is part original music, spoken word, and recorded forest sounds. Players are Doris Henney, flute; Judith English, clarinet; Nancy Goldenhar, bassoon; Ellen Schwindt and Chris Nourse, violin; Amy Berrier, viola.

August 28: Bakery Band, Originals and standards in a folk bluegrass style. Band members are Brad Mckenzie, Lisa Ferguson, Bill May, and Peg Loughran on mandolin, stand-up bass, banjo, and guitar.

Tamworth Mobile Library:

Thanks to a grant from The Tamworth Foundation, each week library staff packs up and brings library materials and information out to our community.

Summer 2021 Route and Schedule

Mondays at 2:00 PM: Remick Acres (not on 8/30)

Mondays at 4:00 PM: Tamworth Pines (not 8/30)

Tuesdays at 12:45 PM: Bearcamp Valley School and Children's Center

Tuesdays 8/4 & 8/11 at 2:30 PM: Summer Camp at The Community School

Interested in volunteering?

We could use a couple of volunteers to learn the Monday routine and help us continue the bookmobile stops into fall.

Passes and Tech Help: Ask us by calling 603-323-8510, or email cooklib@tamworthlibrary.org.

THE LIBRARY WILL BE CLOSED ALL DAY
MONDAY, AUGUST 30

for a staff meeting and planning session

SAVE THE DATE:

Saturday September 25, 11:00 AM at the Tamworth Town House, Friends of Cook Memorial Library Annual Meeting with lunch and speaker Mj Pettingill. All are welcome!

ONE BOOK
ONE VALLEY

In October, we'll explore the fiction of real-life Maine Guide Paul Doiron, and his fictional character, Game Warden Mike Bowditch. There are twelve - start reading!!