This will be the last issue of the Tamworth DAILY Bulletin.

Beginning the week of April 27, it will become the Tamworth WEEKLY Bulletin to be published on Wednesdays. Look for the first issue of the Tamworth Weekly Bulletin on April 29, 2020.

The flow of urgent messages has slowed, and it seems a good time to redirect some energy to other projects.

You can find all previous issues of the Tamworth Daily Bulletin at <https://tamworthlibrary.org/find-info/reference/tamworth-daily-bulletin/>.

If you have an announcement for the Tamworth Weekly Bulletin, send it to mary@tamworthlibrary.org.

WI-FI access places in Tamworth: Cook Memorial Library is developing a list of places in Tamworth that offer free access to wireless internet and don't mind well-behaved socially distanced users on their property. If you can offer a wi-fi hotspot in your neighborhood, let Mary know by calling 323-8510 or emailing mary@tamworthlibrary.org. The public wi-fi list will be shared with schools and with the community. This list will be kept updated. Wi-fi passwords will be posted at each location, allowing hosts to change them as needed.

- Cook Memorial Library, 93 Main Street, Tamworth Village (password is posted on the library window)
- Tamworth Town House, 27 Cleveland Hill Road, Tamworth Village (password is posted on the doors)
- Chocorua Public Library, 25 Deer Hill Road, Chocorua

Mental Health link for the day: First Aid for Feelings: A Workbook to Help Kids Cope During the Coronavirus Pandemic: Denise Daniels, a leading child development expert, has teamed up with Scholastic and the Yale Child Study Center to help children, families, and educators cope during this pandemic. First Aid for Feelings: A Workbook to Help Kids Cope During the Coronavirus Pandemic is a free 16-page downloadable workbook available in English and Spanish. New Hampshire Farm Products Map: UNH Cooperative Extension has released a map to help residents find local healthy food. Find it at <https://extension.unh.edu/resource/new-hampshire-farm-products-map>.

Extension's online map includes farm locations and contact information, farm-preferred methods for relaying product, marketing updates to the public (websites and social media accounts), payment options, alternative purchasing locations, purchasing incentives/food access programs (such as SNAP, senior discounts or veteran discounts) and product category listings.

Farms and related companies that want to be included in the map should use the new site entry form. Those already appearing on the map may make changes by selecting the "update a listing" option on the form.

New Hampshire Food Access Map: UNH Extension worked with the public assistance community to create the New Hampshire Food Access Map, an online platform that enables organizations like food pantries to offer their services and share their needs with the public. Find it at <https://extension.unh.edu/resource/new-hampshire-food-access-map>.

The map shows locations where:

- free or low cost food is offered
- volunteers are needed
- donations are accepted

Organizations that want to be included in the map should use the new site entry form. Those already appearing on the map may make changes by using the update a listing form.
